Through the Eye

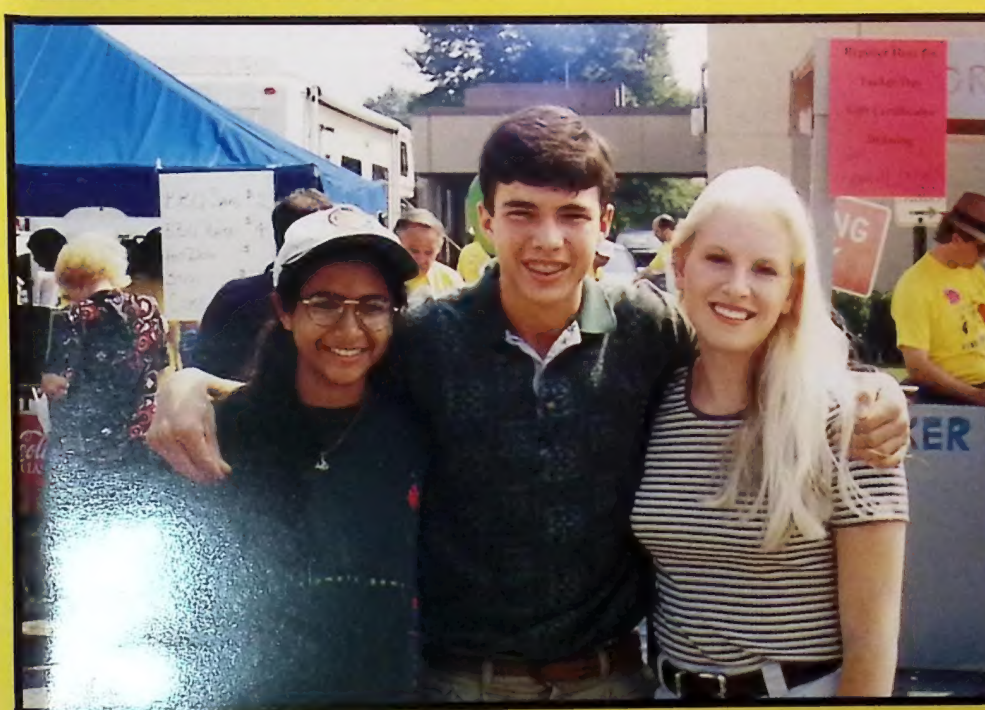

of the Tiger

Take a

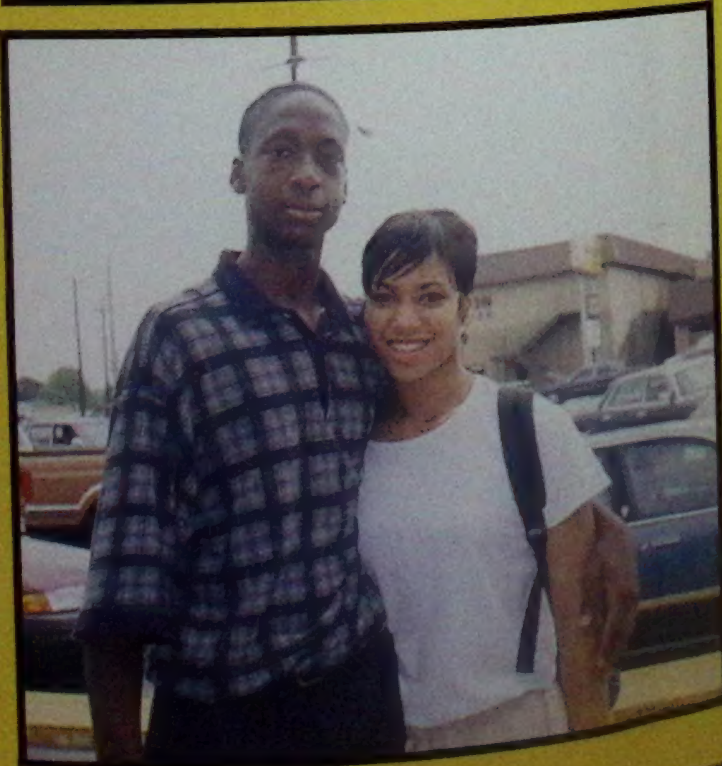

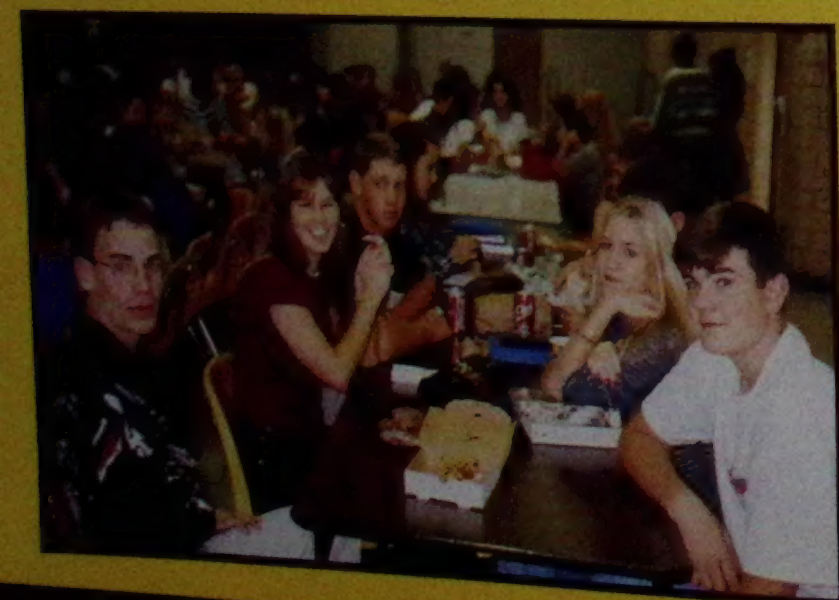

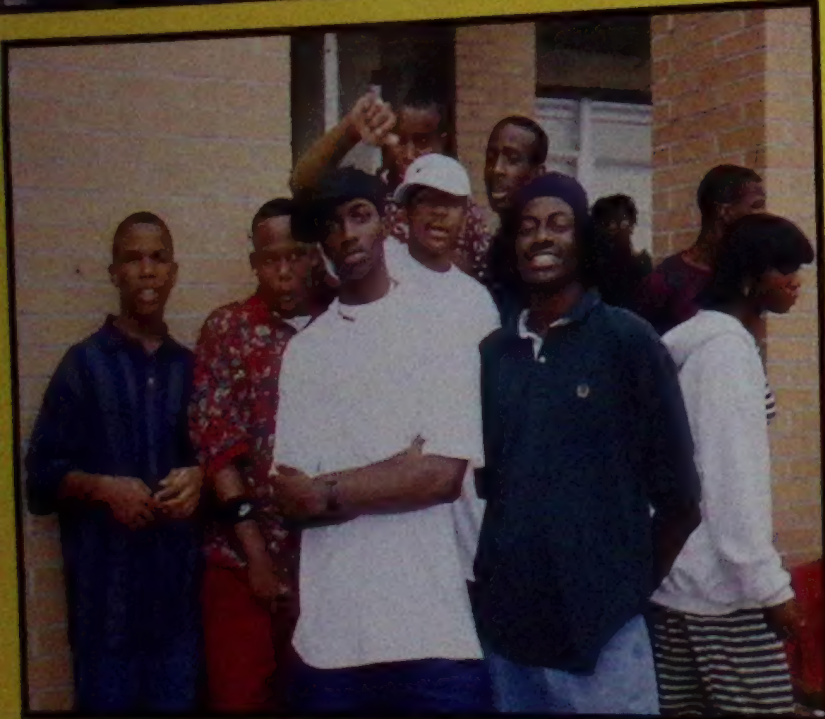

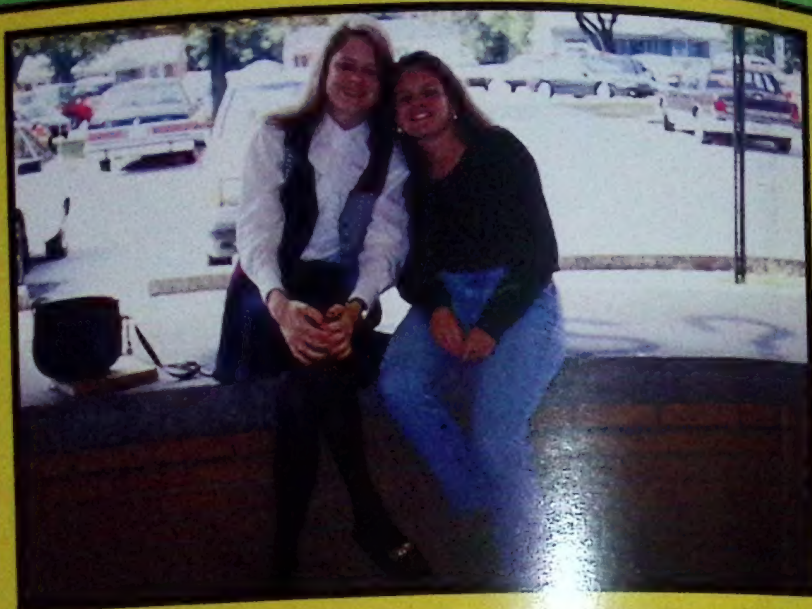

Look at Us

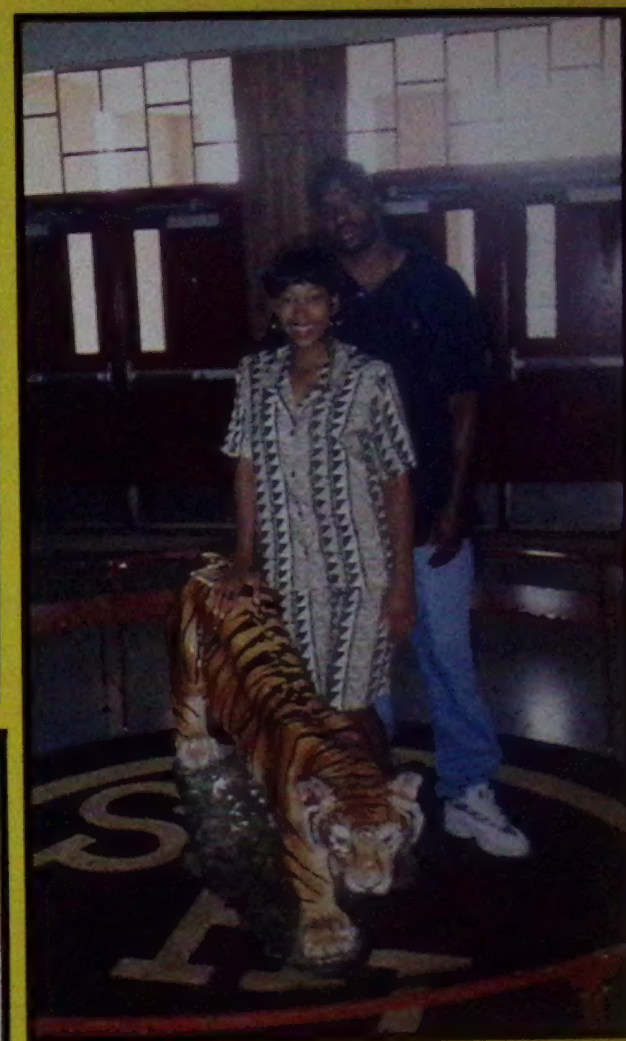

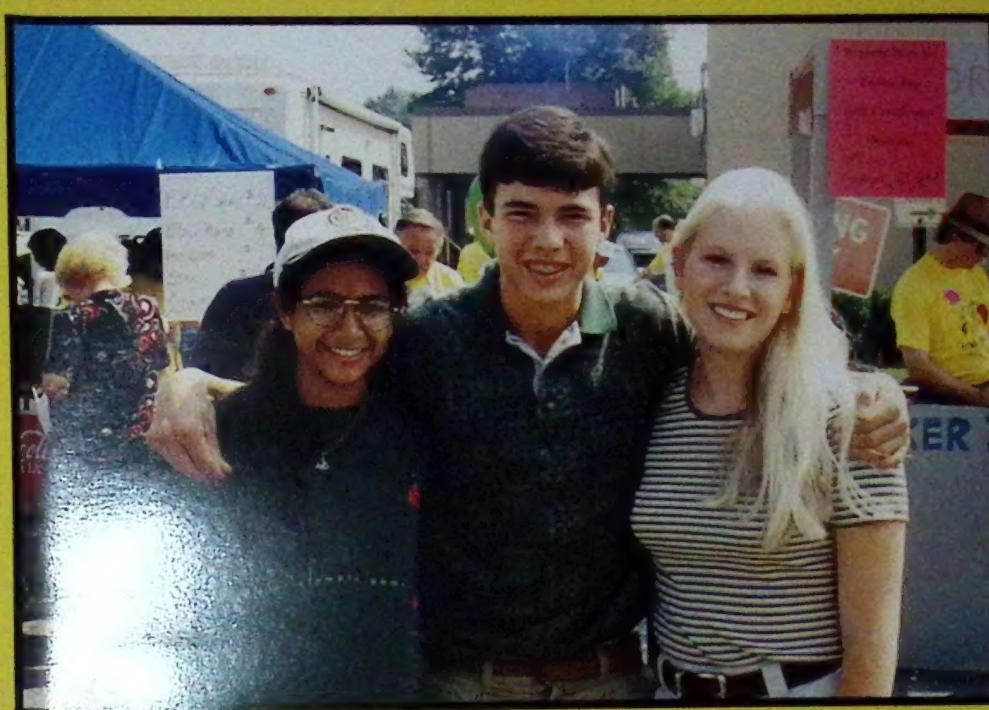

As the bell rings, Tucker's students hurry out into the hallways to mingle with their friends. Friends have always been an essential part of high school as students make relationships and memories that last a lifetime. Over the slamming of lockers and the shuffling of feet, one can always hear the laughter and see the smiles of Tucker's friends having a quick conversation in the short times between classes. For students, free time is rare so lunch and the time between classes are welcome breaks. Friends catch up on the latest gossip or they cram for a test. Friends make one's high school years more fun and exciting.

Eyes in the Books

Tucker High School has a reputation for excellence in academics. Both the teachers and the students of Tucker provide proof for this reputation. Teachers have the responsibility to pass on the wisdom obtained over the years, and students to absorb the knowledge passed down. Whether in anatomy or algebra, Tucker students are willing to go that extra mile to accomplish their academic goals. Tucker High is, no doubt, a place in which students are eager to learn.

Seeing the Sights

As the week drags on and the weekend approaches, students are ready to get away. Since Tucker has a great diversity of people, weekend activities vary. During the fall, some students can be found at Tucker football games. After the game, they head to their favorite restaurants to devour a post-game meal. Students also go to the lake, cruise the streets, or just sleep in. No matter how short the weekend seems, Tucker students will always make the most of it.

Looking

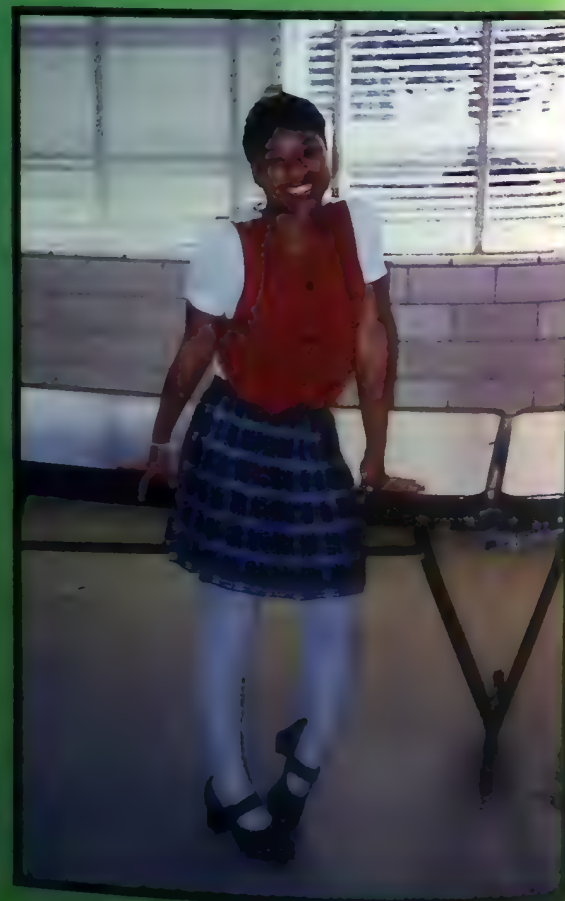

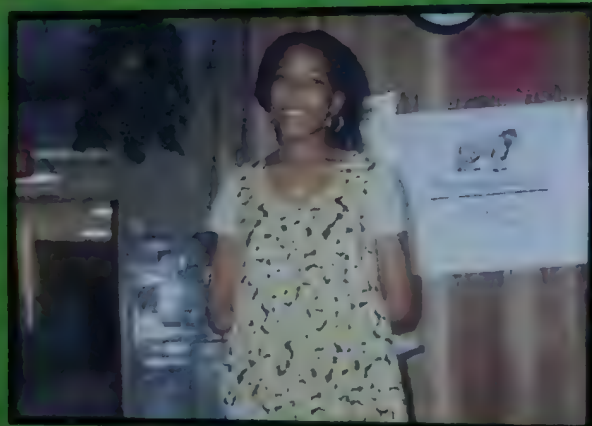

Ahead

For many students, after-school jobs are an important part of their extracurricular activities. Some students hold office jobs while others may work in movie theatres, supermarkets, or restaurants. These jobs teach the value of money and the rewards of income. Students use the money they earn to pay for cars, clothes, and many other desires. Rewards are great, but students must keep in mind their school comes first.

Eye-Catching

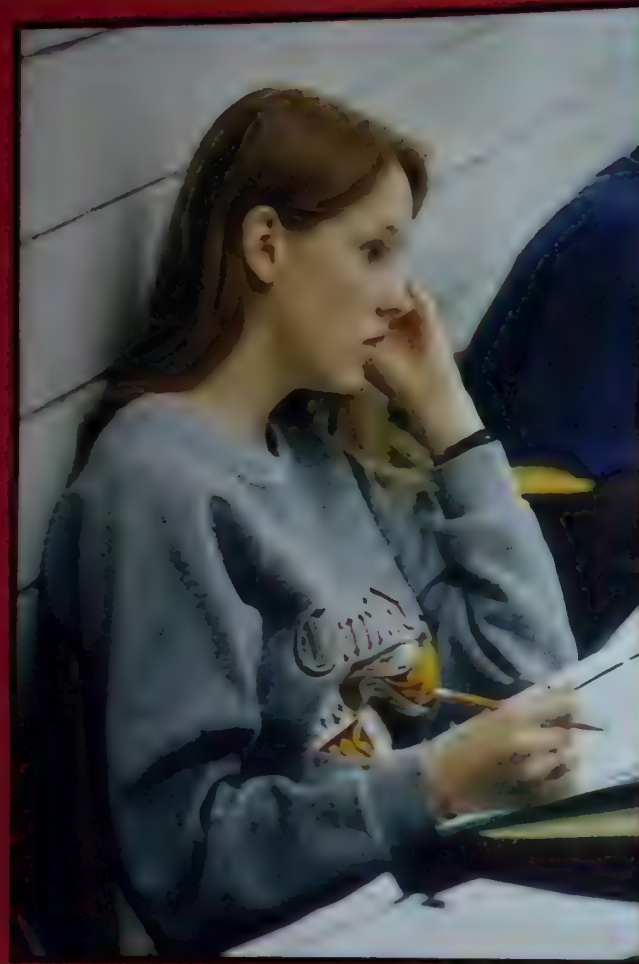

Style

A walk around the halls of Tucker is enough to convince anyone that Tucker students dress for success with style and flair. Each week brings a new style into the halls of Tucker. Whether it's dress clothes, T-shirts, or sweats, Tucker students express their personality and style through their clothes. Although fads come and go, Tucker students always display every catchy fashion trend.

occurs when that last bell rings on last day of school!

From a Tiger

Point of View

"We've got the spirit! At pep rallies, football games, and band rehearsals, spirit is constantly seen around T.H.S. Whether playing an instrument in the Marching Tiger Band or scoring the winning homerun at a baseball game, a Tucker Tiger always exemplifies Tucker's great pride and tradition. The community takes part in the Tiger spirit, also. Families and friends find pleasure in attending events such as Tucker Days and the Homecoming Parade. "If you've said Tucker Tigers, you've said it all!"

One Worth Noticing

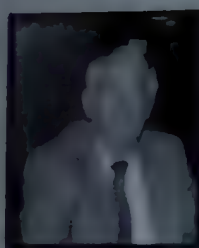

Ten years ago Tucker High School added a new and energetic individual to its faculty. Mrs. Kathy Cunningham joined Tucker's math department, where she has been an influential teacher ever since. In the classroom she motivates her students to do their best. Giving frequent pop quizzes with "smiley faces" drawn on them, Mrs. Cunningham encourages her students to be prepared to use their minds when they walk into her classroom. Students who enter her class quickly discover the importance of an engaged mind. Her positive and helpful attitude contributes to the success of her students. Always available to assist her students, Mrs. Cunningham has shown herself to be a devoted and caring teacher.

In addition to teaching math, Mrs. Cunningham has demonstrated her unwavering commitment as sponsor of Varsity Basketball Cheerleading. Year after year, she has provided her leadership and guidance in this time-consuming role.

Mrs. Cunningham's motivation and dedication to her students make her one of Tucker's finest. Because of her continued devotion to her students the 1995 Tiger, by decision of the graduating class of 1995, is proudly dedicated to Mrs. Kathy Cunningham.
